The Trojans had a great season this year. They had a final record of 8-2 and were in the playoffs for the first time in eight years. Most of this good fortune was helped along by our good senior leadership. Everyone was very proud of this years team and will not soon forget the accomplishments they made. The team was made up of a great bunch of guys that all worked their hardest up till the very end. Good Job Guys!!

The Maroa-Forsyth volleyball program maintained their winning tradition under first year head coach Jeff Holmes. The varsity had a record of 25-9 and the JV had a record of 19-3. The varsity program started the season placing seventh in the Clinton Classic, second place in the Bomber Classic, third in the Macon County Tournament, and won the Championship in the Central A&M Invitational. The JV team captured third place in the Clinton Classic, won their own Frosh/Soph tournament, and placed second in the Meridian Conference. Individual awards went to Kirsten Bass and Kristen Mortenson for serving; Monica Chandler and Sunni Ammann for most improved player; and Tisa McLaughlin and Kristin Mortenson for MVP. The Lady Trojan Volleyball team was a pleasure to coach because of the intensity these girls brought to the court each night. Thank you ladies for your efforts!

The Moroa-Forsyth High School Pom Pon Squad, the Dance Detail, had a busy year. The squad was chosen in the spring of '94. Molly Carnahan, a four year member, and Kim Buggar, a three year member, were veteran squad members. Some of the girls attended the Universal Dance Camp at ISU. Then the Dance Detail hosted a five day camp for the MFJH pom pon members. Dance Detail performed at all home varsity football and basketball games. They also danced at most of the home girls' basketball games. Dance Detail hosted the Christmas Dance. Angie Wells and Nathan Marsh were crowned queen and king of the dance.

Other activities included a clinic for grade school children. The grade-schoolers learned a routine and performed at a high school basketball game. The Dance Detail danced at Jazz '95.

This was Mrs. Devore's last year as dance leader. We thank her for her years of hard work and early mornings!

Are we proud of our Band? You bet! From the Homecoming Parade to the Pep Band during basketball we hear nothing but EXCELLENCE! Who can forget the Halloween antics of Marching Band members and their revered (Or should we say reverand) leader? During the year the Band performs about 50 times. This year they participated in Band Day at both I.S.U. and U. of I. They also gave a Spring Concert and a Fall Concert, played in the Macon County Band Festival, and took contestants to the IHSA Solo and Ensemble contest. Congratulations! The MFHS Concert Band took First Place at the High School State Organizational Contest.

Everybody plays.

A USO Show

Close your eyes. Where are you? For one golden night the MFHS gym is transformed. Our always patriotic Phillip Hardin and the MFHS Jazz Band played songs from the Swing era, the 50- and the 60's. Decorated in red, white and blue, the gym was reminiscent of a wartime USO, complete with dancing. The Prarieland Dixie Band from Bloomington were quest artists. The Pom Pon girls danced and the show choir sang beautifully. Kevin Jannusch was the Master of Ceremonies. Refreshments were provided by the Band Boosters.

Mr. Hardin introduces the band.

Two concerts were put on by the chorus, one at Christmas and one in the Spring, and some members of the chorus sang at Jazz Night and at Graduation. The chorus took first place at the Organizational Contest, and at the Solo Ensemble Contest they got 10 first places, 9 second places, and 3 third places.

We travelled to Tolono next to face an outstanding Argenta-Oreana team. The Trojans won 3-2. Moving on to the Monticello Sectional, Maroa-Forsyth faced Meridian rival Bethany. Maroa-Forsyth trailed until a grand-slam home run by T.J. Jackson put the Trojans ahead for good in a rain shortened game, the final score 8-3. The spring play "Up the Down Staircase," a two act comedy, was presented April 21 and 22, 1995 in the Maroa Forsyth High School gym.

"Judging by the audience's reaction, it was a success," said Mrs. Devore, director.

Linda Sides was a most capable student director and Eric Cook assisted by Katie and Paul Kruzan designed an attractive and workable set. Lighting duties were handled by Zack Duncan and Matt Cullison. Hair and make-up were taken care of by Cathy Duncan and Christy Schichner.

The show, set in the 1960's, is headed by Miss Barrett, a first year teacher at Calvin Coolidge HS in New York City. Junior Lindsay Younker was a most convincing "Sylvia" ably supported by the rest of the cast.

This year was Mrs. Devore's last year as director at MFHS. Mrs. Devore comments: "Of the seven shows I have directed at MFHS, five were musicals, "Grease," "Westside Story," "Oklahoma," "Annie," and "Bye Bye Birdie," one was a drama "Our Town," and this a comedy. This was a fine group to work with - I enjoyed both them and the show."
